SHOW CAUSE ORDER

After reviewing the file and discussion of the issues at the Show Cause hearing held March 27, 2012, the Commission finds sufficient reason to allow the 2011 SDD and SDM licenses with Sunday Sales Permit (P.M.) held by Wac-N-Pac Corporation (licensee) at the above-noted location to remain in escrow under the provisions of administrative rule R 436.1107 until such time that the licensee assumes full proprietary control of the licensed business, transfers ownership of the licenses and permit to a person approved by the MLCC, or the licenses and permit terminate while in escrow. Accordingly, the licensee must submit all license fees to the Commission by April 30th of each year.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

- A. This order supersedes all licensing and violation processes and orders issued in this matter as it pertains to the transfer, suspension, or revocation of the subject licenses.
1. The language pertaining to the suspension and revocation of the subject licenses issued under the Amended and Original Hearing Orders pertaining to Complaint No. 0-144173 dated May 16, 2011 and July 1, 2011 respectively, are STRICKEN.
 2. The Orders of Extension pertaining to Complaint No. 0-144173 dated November 2, 2011 and March 1, 2012 are RESCINDED.
 3. The Licensing Appeal Order pertaining to Request ID No. 616819 dated February 14, 2012 is RESCINDED.
- B. The application file is to be returned to the Licensing Division for further review of the purchase agreement and to await a resolution between the parties or to be furnished with a Court Order determining who has rights to the subject licenses.
